BLACKBOARD- Introduction to Completing Group Assignments

Creating Group Assignments can be helpful to encourage interaction and collaboration among students.

CREATE ASSIGNMENT

- Can create one assignment for all groups or unique assignments for individual groups.
- Only you and the group members have access to the assignment and information within that group.
- Each group submits only one assignment and members each receive this same grade.

CREATE ASSIGNMENT

- A course group or groups must exist before you can create a group assignment.
- You can self-enroll in groups or be assigned to groups manually or randomly.
- All collaboration tools, available within the group, are controlled by faculty.