

D – Executive Limitations	GENERAL EXECUTIVE CONSTRAINT
----------------------------------	-------------------------------------

Background

This policy forms the broadest (and therefore most open to interpretation) of any executive limitations policy. All further executive limitations policies are merely a narrowing of the provisions of this policy.

The President is granted to use any reasonable interpretation of the Board’s policies and/or refer to the Board for advice as may be necessary.

In addition, the President must abide by all other laws and regulations that apply to the operations of the College.

Policy

The President will only engage in activities, decisions or organizational circumstances that are lawful, prudent and in compliance with commonly accepted business and professional ethics.

Monitoring

The President shall verify in writing annually that they have neither caused or knowingly permitted any practice, activity, decision or organizational circumstance that is unlawful, imprudent or in violation of commonly accepted business and professional ethics.
