Project Management

(1 Year, 2 semesters post-graduate certificate program)

The Project Management program is an innovative program providing students with highly marketable skills in overall project management and leadership. Project managers plan, organize, direct, control and evaluate the activities of organizations that analyze, design, develop, implement, operate and administer a variety of projects. They are employed throughout the public and private sectors.

Occupational Areas

Graduates of this program will learn how to initiate, plan, monitor and control projects through to successful completion. They acquire the competencies to lead diverse project teams within a broad range of sectors in public, private and not-for-profit settings while applying content-specific knowledge of their previous studies and experiences.

The Project Management Institute (PMI) predicts a 33% growth rate for the Project Management (PM) labour force between 2017-2027 across 11 countries, including Canada (Project Management institute, 2017). Within Ontario, the provincial government foresees an above average employment outlook for project managers working within the construction industry between 2017-2021, with job growth predicted to be 10.1-11% in the field (Government of Ontario, n.d.).
