Academic Integrity for Testing/Exams at Northern College

The evaluation of a student through a test, exam or other means is built on the premise that the work submitted by the student is the student's own work.

- Take precautions to ensure that you have eliminated all possible means to cheat for this evaluation. Consult your professor before testing begins if you have questions on what defines authorized materials permitted for this test.
- Ensure that your person and workspace (desk, lab bench, computer desk) are free and clear of anything that could be perceived as a means to cheat (e.g. phones, smart watches, water bottles, hats, unauthorized calculators, etc.). All backpacks, textbooks, notebooks, cellphones etc. are to be placed at the front of the classroom unless other specific directions have been provided.
- Do not communicate with any person(s) other than the professor/invigilator(s) during the evaluation. Any communication with others beyond the professor/invigilator(s) – even translating or explaining a question to another student -- is an act of academic dishonesty.
- You are to cease further writing on the tests / exams when the invigilator says time is up. The test / exam is to be handed in promptly. Failure to do so will result in a loss of marks.
